

The police of the future

IPYC

Hereby we warmly invite you to the second International Police Youth Conference, that will take place on October 29, 30 and 31 in The Hague, the political capital of the Netherlands.

The aim of the conference is to establish an exchange between police officers from about ten European countries at professional and trade union level.

Topics of discussion will include

- improvements in resources and equipment
- dealing with stress during day-to day police operations
- cross-border police cooperation's in the fight against cyber and organised crime;
- new security strategies and methods of investigation in the context of 'smart policing'.

The conference should also be seen as a means of creating political awareness for our professional demands and our proposals for improvement.

Register now!

Police unions can register up to five attendees at the conference. Attendees should not be much older than 35 years. Their union will have to bear their costs for travel and overnight stay. Catering costs at the conference itself will be covered by the organisers.

Registration is possible till July 11, by sending an e-mail to conference@politiebond.nl. Please state in your e-mail the family name, first name, date of birth and e-mail address of each attendee.

PROGRAM

FIRST DAY

Arrival will be at October 29 in the afternoon. You will be welcomed by the organisers and offered a dinner and a welcome cocktail. After dinner the opportunity is given to get to know each other in an informal setting.

SECOND DAY

On the second day, October 30, we will give you a varied program with speakers, panel discussion and a nice trip to show the police work in Germany and the Netherlands.

- Official opening
- Small talk by GDP/NPB
- Panel discussion arranged by GDP about the voluntary work for the union
- Talk about police of the future (with a sneak preview and referring to the workshops)
- Boat tour Rotterdam by the water police
- Transfer to the police training facilities in Rotterdam
- Training together (Split up in groups and try to catch suspect by working together, different countries in one team, afterwards discussion about approach, good things and things that could have been better, nice exercise to bring up points for the discussion in the workshops on the second day)

THIRD DAY

On the third day, October 31, we will have a morning program with discussion and the following workshops:

- Internal affairs
- Equipment
- Police training
- Social media

The IPYC 2019 will be closed by a farewell lunch.
